Flatwork, Showjumping and XC Clinics

Sun 21st January 2018 – Showjumping Clinic at Manor Farm, Teffont SP3 5QY

Clinics are with Amy Westcott-Allen who is a sympathetic and confidence giving instructor. She trained for 14 years with Russ Hardy at Boomerang Stables before spending some time in Germany with Peter Weinberg. When she came back to UK she focused mainly on showjumping and producing her young horses up to elementary level dressage. She now focuses on the showjumping competing at CSI International shows as well as National Level in the UK.

Amy is a UKCC Level 2 Coach and is training for her Level 3 Showjumping specific. Amy now teaches a huge variety of people and horses pony clubs, riding clubs, junior riders, private sessions and runs her own clinics and camps. Amy also works closely with Retraining of Racehorses in all disciplines and brings the skills and sensitivity needed to all her coaching sessions.

Please request and fill out the booking form as Honestly as possible so we can group everyone together as best as we can.

Sessions are 1 Hour and will be limited to 4 per sessions.

Each session will include a thorough warm up. Then helping each rider to learn and ride their course and to work towards solving any problems you might have and to help restore you and your horse's confidence and self-belief.

All abilities and ages are catered for.
