🌟 Important info regarding show 🌟

As many of you may know, not only is Ledston Equestrian Centre a beautiful show venue, it is also a practising Equine vets and hospital therefore the following precautions are in place:

ALL horses have to have full vaccinations upto date and have to be 7 days clear if a second vaccination. All passports have to be checked before the horses leave their transport - there is no exception

Ledston is virus free and we would like it to stay that way, I'm sure you will agree that these measures are responsible and benefit all

Please report your arrival to the secretary before unloading
