

Spring Valley Stables

Fun Show

Simulated Cross Country Clinic

Saturday 8th August 2020

To be held at Spring Valley Stables,
Brewery Hill, Bitton, Bristol, BS30 6LY

A safer way to practice XC- no solid wooden fences. Ideal for people who want to learn how to ride cross country fences without having to be out on a full cross country course, or for people who want something a bit different to regular show jumping. Can include tyres, barrels, small logs, angled rails, corner fences mad out of poles etc.

£15 per person for a group lesson (3-4 people), £20 per person for a semi-private, £35 for a private lesson.

When booking in, let me know whether you want this to be held in the arena or in a field, we will do whichever is more popular.

Will be run following social distancing rules and current safety measures. Clinics are 1 hour long each, taught by Anna Gallie. All abilities welcome. We can do whatever height suits you. Please bring minimal spectators.

Please see our Facebook page and event pages for more information, or message us with any questions you may have.

Message our Facebook page (Spring Valley Stables Fun Shows) to book in, or email enquiries.springvalley@gmail.com Payment to be made when booking in.

Closing date for entries will be the Wednesday prior to the clinic (5th August) and times can be found on our Facebook page following that.
