Pick and Mix Classes:

Riders must attempt one jump from each line of fences where all height are together (for example, the first log or the railway crossing), they may choose to jump other jumps of the height they choose. The easiest way to select your pick and mix track is to choose a height you would like to jump, follow that course and jump larger fences on the easy fences or select a smaller option on a more daunting fence.

A and B Sections are solely for qualification purposes. Sections will be combined for placings.

All Hunter Trial classes will include a clearly marked fastest or optimum time section

Please see the information board and our Facebook page for information on which is being used – it will depend upon the ground conditions.
